Washington County School District Activity Disclosure Statement

As of the 1999-2000 school year, it is required by law that each local school board develop an activity disclosure statement for each school-sponsored team, group, club, or program which involves students and faculty in grades 9 through 12. If a student is involved in contests, performances, events, or other activities that require them to miss school or participate in evening activities, a disclosure statement must be disseminated to the students desiring involvement. The Activity Disclosure Statement should also be shared with the parent or guardian of the students involved.

The following outline is designed to assist advisors in developing a disclosure statement of the activity they are responsible for:

ORGANIZATION OF NEW CLUBS AND PARTICIPATION IN UHSAA ACTIVITIES.

Students in Washington County School District are encouraged to be involved in school-sponsored activities and clubs. The organization of new clubs is encouraged providing their goals and objectives are not in conflict with school board policy, or local, state, and federal law.

A club must have a willing advisor who is a certified teacher. Parents may assist certified teachers. All advisors must be approved by school administration.

The proposed club must submit a written constitution. The constitution must be approved by the administration, faculty, and student body representatives.

Organizers must sign a statement of guarantee that all club activities will comply with school policy and will not conflict with school board policy or local, state, and federal law. Clubs promoting hate, racism, or persecution and clubs deemed disruptive to the educational environment of the school will not be allowed.

All high school activities sponsored by the Utah High School Activities Association are governed by the By-laws, and Constitution of the UHSAA. In order for a student to participate in these sponsored activities, he/she must meet the requirements of the UHSAA and Washington County School District policies.
